FOREWORD

"Thar's gold in them thar hills" was the cry a hundred years ago, and people flocked to California. They brought their picks, shovels and wheelbarrows. Some dropped along the way; others didn't make the grade after they got there, but many came out with some gold.

"Thar's gold in that thar school" we were told four years ago; and we, as freshmen, flocked inside to try to find it. We brought our tools too, but pencils, paper and books instead of shovels, picks and wheelbarrows. Along the way some dropped out, unable to keep pace with the really eager prospectors plodding on, peeking into crevices, exploring new channels in the search for hidden nuggets.

Each year new prospectors came, while others went never telling us where they found gold, but saying each of us had to find it for himself. During the search we struck rich friendships with fellow miners and foremen as well. We eased the weary hours of work by entering into community affairs. We attended the dances in the great hall, elected our officers, helped to keep order in the community, and organized town teams for the energetic ones.

Now, we are leaving this mining town. Having found this gold we are taking away our share—knowledge.

MR. WILLIAM K. ROOT

DEDICATION

The '49-ers dedicate this Talisman to Mr. William Root. Seldom does a teacher gain the interest and loyalty that Mr. Root has in the three years he has been with us. As a teacher, he aided us in the search for our personal gold mine—knowledge. As a friend, and pal, although not a skier himself, he helped to reorganize the ski team. Digging right into hard work, he took over the job as faculty manager of athletics. We appreciate most of all, however, his enthusiasm for the Memorial Bleacher fund. We wish him success, and hope to see his dream materialize soon. Mr. Root is, indeed, a gold mine and we feel we have struck it rich to have known him.

MR. ARTHUR M. GUILD

Although many of you have already completed your formal education, and all will have done so within a few brief years, your greatest opportunities for self improvement lie ahead.

Many are prone to believe that when a person graduates he is educated and remains so without continued effort. Nothing could be further from the truth. The person who lives this life to the fullest is he who constantly widens his horizons by observation, by books, by conversation, by travel, by music, and by all of the other associations which make for enrichment of daily living.

ARTHUR M. GUILD,
Principal of Rutland High School.

MR. HOMER B. ASHLAND

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1949:

What can an "old salt" say to the young sailor?

To most of us only years of experience bring a full realization of the heritage which is America. Be on your guard lest some of your generation consider their individual liberty too lightly, and "sell" it for promises of "security!" Resist every such blow at the heart of your country—whether from within or without.

In America—in our way of life—we really "have something." Cherish it as you would your very life!

HOMER B. ASHLAND,
Superintendent of Schools.

President's Message

ROBERT BEAUCHAMP
President

At this point in life, we, as members of the class of '49, are faced with one of the greatest decisions of life. For most of us this is the first time in our lives that we have had to depend upon our own decision to determine our future. In later years our choice of an occupation will be of more importance than it seems to us today, and so we must choose wisely and with consideration; for a satisfactory and successful life is something to look forward to.

For twelve years most of us have been together in education and activities, where we have learned to cooperate and work as a group to achieve success. We have done well, and may we continue as individuals to do so in our immediate and distant future.

For the class, I should like to thank the faculty of Rutland High School, our parents, and the citizens of Rutland, for the education they have made possible for us.

Class Song

Words: PATRICIA HUBBARD

Music: ROBERT HOWE

Long we thought the years would be, but swift they passed us by
And now we sadly bid farewell to dear old Rutland High.

Our memories will never die,
Our loyalty is true,
As forth we go to meet the world we give our thanks to you for—

Happy hours we have shared and friends who've grown so dear
For guiding help, encouragement, and knowledge gained while here.

Life's challenge now summons us,
As high hopes fill each heart,
"Good luck and happiness to all"—the time has come to part.

Class History

When we came into the halls of Rutland High School, we entered as no other freshman class has ever done; for we came with picks and shovels, like all forty-niners, and began to stake our claims. We found that the prospecting was not so good as expected, because the earlier settlers had managed to discover the best territories. Immediately, headquarters learned that there was an insufficient number of hitching posts for our wagons, which caused quite a parking problem, and turmoil was the keynote of our first day.

In order to keep the claims from being over-crowded, the new wave of prospectors was urged to stake out claims in some of the extra-curricular activities, which were soon organized.

Football was the first territory to be opened for claims, and we can well remember the first game with Windsor, when Dick Clifford, Roy Plumley, Paul Horton, Pablo Edgerton, and two gigantic ball-toters, Marty Martin and Jim Vennett, all got their share of a very muddy gridiron.

We all tossed our shovels into the ring at election time, and Dick Martin was elected president, Marge Perkins, vice president, and Pat Dolan, secretary and money-handler.

For prospectors, we were quite musical, with nine forty-niners entering the band, eight going into the orchestra, and many more signing up as vocalists. Pat Dolan and Rosie Flanders were selected as high-stepping majorettes.

We suspended panning operations for a short while when the rivers froze over, and, in order to while away the time, we entered into one of the highlights of the year, the production of HMS Pinafore which starred Tom Pease and Bob Willson.

The appearance of spring brought many hopes to the now tired forty-niners, but the only territory with good hunting grounds was Track. Many of us became members of the team, with Dave Roe striking gold in the form of a track letter, which was the only letter awarded to a freshman.

When we returned from our long summer vacation, we were delighted to find that the seniors had relinquished their claims, which gave us a much better assortment from which to choose.

Several of our pencil-wielders joined the ranks of the Red and White, and Marge Perkins and Bev Lash became varsity cheerleaders, and recipients of that trip to Boston with the state championship basketball team.

During our first year we were unable to find any gold; so we staked claims on a movie, which turned out to be our first strike, and the beginning of our gold reserve.

Head-prospectors for our sophomore year were Marge Perkins, Bob Beauchamp, and Pat Dolan, who took the reins as president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Coach Douglas again looked to the forty-miners, and this year they managed to locate a state championship trophy, which pleased them to the extent that they had to have it, with the result that several of us received letters.

Directing operations for our junior year was the governing trio of Miller, Edgerton, and Pat Dolan.

As usual, football got off to an early start, and the efforts of Dick Clifford, Roy Plumley, Jim Vennett, Paul Horton, John Edgerton, and Tom Pease were sufficient to earn letters.

At first it seemed like a shovel handle, but it turned out to be the golden baton that Pat Dolan was wielding during the halves, along with Bev Reed, Kay Hansen, and Rosie Flanders.

Long exercise with mining implements evidently developed a very sensitive funny-bone, or else the Raider athletes found some hidden talent when they put on the World Premiere of the A. A. Revue for '48.

Although the cold winter air made the ground so hard that prospecting was impossible, only one forty-miner was present in the starting line-up for the hoop season, but Dave Roe was right in the center of the team.

Marge Perkins and her associates directed the operations for our Junior Prom, which, even though trackmen were excused early, was one of the best dances of the year.

The spring weather beckoned to the track team, and again Coach Douglas found that the "miners" would form the nucleus of the squad, including pick-polisher, Edgie Miller. With a perfect record throughout the season, the Raiders were tied by Burlington in the state meet, and ended up as co-champions.

All of the success of the track team was not due to Mr. Douglas, surprisingly enough, for Coach Flaitz's baseball outfit managed to keep the trackmen on their toes during practice, with the help of a few hard-hit line drives, while their season's record earned them a berth in the championship game with Burlington, where they were defeated. Dick Clifford, Rip Kellogg, Paul Horton, Bill Thomas, and Don Peer, Manager, kept the forty-miners well represented on this half of the great spring-time rivalry.

It was a big day for the Roe twins, George Miller, and George Peck when they unearthed some membership certificates in the National Honor Society, early in April.

At one of our last assemblies, twenty-six of the forty-miners were selected to be policemen for our village, with Bev Gibbs as the Chief.

Tom Pease found his educated pencil, and jotted down some ideas which developed into a prize-winning essay, and earned a scholarship to the University of Vermont. Close behind him in the receiving line was Jim White, who gained fame as the recipient of the Harvard Book Award.

Mixing vacation with education, several '49-ers went prospecting at Girls' State and Boys' State, and Dave Roe was elected governor of the latter.

School got under way again in September, and we embarked on our fourth and final year. Dick Roe, while directing the operations of the Student Council, discovered that the senior class was without a governing officer. So, following his suggestion, we had a big conclave, and elected Bob Beauchamp as class president, Paul Horton, vice president, Pat Dolan as secretary, and Dick Clifford, treasurer.

When Jim Vennett began his preparations for the Freshman Reception, he found our gold supply rather low, in fact, it wasn't even there. However, the Reception was excellent, and the Greenies were formally accepted into our society.

The gridiron calls of Dido Flaitz summoned a state championship team, composed of a majority of '49-ers, who suffered only one setback in capturing the state championship, and along with it, the city championship. Vennett, Kellogg, Clifford, and Plumley carried RHS right into the All-State line-ups.

Before the football season was completed, plans were being formulated for our production of Junior Miss, which starred Pat Hubbard, Marge Perkins, Roy Plumley, and Jack Schremly. The production struck gold, and increased our treasury considerably.

With the basketball season underway, we again searched for our seniors, but we found only two, Captain Dave Roe and Johnny Baldwin. A good season's record gave them a Tournament berth, but before they could bring any honors back to headquarters, the ski team, with one senior, Captain George Peck, returned carrying the Runner-up trophy from a very close state ski championship. So as not to be outdone, the hoopsters went ahead and won the Southern Vermont Tourney, only to be defeated in the state championship.

Having realized that we were accomplishing something at R. H. S., we decided that we should have a record of it all, and Kay Hansen and Jean Johnson were elected to direct operations for our yearbook, The Talisman.

Jean Johnson stepped to the fore as Good Citizenship Girl, just before our all-male National Honor Society met, and inducted Pat Hubbard, Dick Martin, Roy Plumley, Jack Schremly, Faye Russell, and Carolyn Sharp into their ranks.

As the big presses start to turn, the formal record of our life at R. H. S. must come to a close, and we shall soon depart on our life's journey, but the past four years, with their many memorable happenings, will be with us always.

GEORGE PECK,
Class Historian.

Class Will

We, the graduating class of nineteen hundred forty-nine, better known as the '49-ers, having dug up enough wealth of knowledge to stake a claim to a diploma, laying aside our picks to shovel off in search of a golden future, do hereby make this our last Will and Testament.

DICK CLIFFORD leaves his hearty laugh to anyone without a sense of humor. As you know he's always in stitches.

GEORGE PECK wills his ski-wax, in the hope that it will speed up the freshman class.

PAT DOLAN leaves her band whistle to the junior wolves. When she parades, even Killington and Pico Peak.

DAVE ROE, star athlete and horn blower, wills his wind to George Hansen. (As though George needed it!)

FAYE RUSSELL leaves her prophecy for what it's worth.

RALPH NUTTER gives up riding round and hanging round for Mendon with its square meals and square dances.

TOM GERDON keeps his "Ipana" smile but leaves many a word unspoken.

ROBERT FREGOSI leaves—peace at last!

PABLO "BIG BOOM" EDGERTON passes on his drumstick to some hungry under-classman.

SHIRLEY PETERS leaves her car—Whistle.

GEORGE MILLER leaves his nose for news. What a head line!

STUART HARRISON leaves a bunsen burner from chemistry class for future athletes to burn up the track.

DOROTHY QUELCH leaves a piece of chalk for anyone wishing to make his mark in life.

PETER MOUSTAKIS of the Senior Play cast and a lover of literature, leaves to Jackie Daley "A Thousand and One Nights." Now she can play "Night and Day."

VIRGINIA "ARGYLE" OLSON, not wishing to needle leaves her ability to knit to all those who should "tend to their knitting."

CAROLYN SHARP leaves music appreciation class with the hope of acquiring a flat and ever-lasting harmony.

PAUL HORTON leaves a bottle of peroxide for Mr. Root's bleacher fund.

ANNE THOMPSON leaves chemistry class, unconvinced.

ROSEMARY FLANDERS, one of "Seward's specials," leaves a sweet memory to mix with the nuts in the freshman class. (Some dish!)

MATTHEW BURKE forsakes his role as a pest to take his place in the corner grocery. Lettuce hope that he and Betty Crocker Mix.

BARBARA DWYER wills her seat in Mr. Purdy's room to a patient junior, with the understanding that she will be informed as to the conclusion of the short story Mr. Purdy started in September, 1948.

JOHN Baldy BALDWIN wills his butch to John Curly Dolan, whose hair was straight before hearing those half-time talks by Bundsie.

BETTY BAKER leaves her monitor's arm band for Arthur's talent show, by Godfrey.

BILL FISKE who likes to hunt, really has no license to leave this one. "I use gun powder regularly, and who knows, someday I may be a big shot."

JUDY KOTUBY, who has used her size to advantage in mathematics, leaves this thought to Miss Johnson's pupils—"It's easy when you remember—'It's the little things in life that count'."

ROBERT HUESTIS leaves Miss St. Clair's English class still thinking that a "parenthesis" is a thesis written by parents.

RUTH ANN RAYMOND, who displays such an interest in our breakfast menus, leaves this thought with the Home Ec. class, "Nothing is wasted, they are still using my biscuits to pave the streets of Ireland."

JACK "PING PONG" SCHREMLY leaves his paddle to take the fresh out of Freshmen and keep them on the ball.

MARY JANE ANDERSON leaves her blonde tresses to "Dido" Flaitz so he can have a part in something besides sports.

RUSSELL DEMMON (since Dick Clifford put him back on his feet) leaves his parking space in Mintzer's junk yard to Jim Guild who, from what I hear, does quite a lot of parking.

MARILYN DORIAN leaves this thought with the school nurse: "Why are so many twisted necks caused by well-turned ankles?"

BARBARA ROWELL, who loves horses, leaves this advice—"While I don't wish to saddle you with worries, it's a cinch you'll have to buckle down and get in the harness if you get over the hurdles that lie ahead." That should stirrup some of them, Barbara.

DICK ANDERSON leaves to answer a call to arms—in Springfield. What's her name, Dick?

BEVERLY—"GIBBS" her Crosley car to Mr. Douglas. Now all he needs is one for the other foot.

ROBERT BEAUCHAMP leaves this prescription for underclassmen. "Take medicine regularly, whether needed or not." By a strange coincidence, Bob may be contacted at the "Beauchamp and O'Rourke" drug store.

GEORGE PIKE, having recovered from injuries received in football, leaves his splints to the cheerleaders to start a fire and keep their wig-wam!

JUNE ADAMS has made a sock to leave around, in the hope that some eligible male will "put his foot in it."

DICK MARTIN, varsity football, gives his quarterback. If Flaitz could get another quarterback and a half back, he'd have a buck on the line.

JOANNE HOAG gives up the immortals who grace our corridors, without regret. Says Joanne, "Everyone of them is a bust."

SAM HELEBA leaves "Whistler's Mother" to Miss Doane. Sam himself has quite a reputation as a whistler and besides he likes 'em younger.

MYRNA MONAHAN of the charming voice, leaves this musical note—"My favorite composition in a minor is Howard Nason!"

JIM "KANGAROO" VENNETT leaves behind a goodyear of football and track, but insists on retaining his "Goodrich." (Leila, that is.)

DONALD PEER offers the use of his belt to all students finding it difficult to slip out on weekday nights. (It never kept Don in.)

As for MARY WILLIAMS,
Mary, Mary, quite contrary
Will not leave a thing
Except a wish that R. H. S.
Will always reign as "King."

ROBERT KELLOGG leaves his motorcycle—head first. He never got so high so fast.

BEVERLY REED leaves her band uniform for someone to fill. It'll take some figure-in.

WILBUR WESTON leaves his last name, as he hope to find employment and realizes one can't work and be Weston at the same time.

BEVERLY LASH says "Wah-Hoo will I leave anything to?"
Why don't you leave your feather to Mr. Canary; he ought to be tickled.

TILTON "ELECTRICIAN" RICHARDS mounts his kilocycle leaving his currents for the lunch room. Shocking eh, watt?

RICHARD JOHNSON wills a Holstein cow to Miss Moran. Boys, will she have her hands full!

KENENA HANSEN leaves her place in line for rush seats at the Armory, as she has found a more pleasant way of being squeezed.

WILLIAM "MILKMAN" THOMAS wishes to pass on this explanation—"The sign in front of our Dairy Bar stands for the best in milk products"—and that's no bull! which just about puts the cap on the bottle.

In witness whereof, on this twenty-eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-nine, without binding the parties involved to the terms herein, and without having received any compensation or remuneration for services rendered in connection with the preparation of this document, I hereby cause my signature to be affixed upon this last will and testament of the '49-ers.

ROY D. PLUMLEY,
Class Lawyer.

Class Prophecy

A few days ago I met an old prospector from the class of '49. I inquired about some of the '49-ers' present positions and learned that:

Senator Tom Pease has been filibustering for six weeks on the Pease Anti-Anything Bill. (It is expected that President Pat Hubbard will veto it, though.)

Donald Lunt and his flute may be heard daily over WSYB imitating bird calls. Occasionally over the same station you will hear the famous tobacco auctioneer, and successor of Mr. F. E. Boone, Robert Herrick.

Celestine Raymond has long since tired of her roller-skates and will be seen with her friend Virginia Ramson, in the motorcycle races at the Rutland Fair this fall.

Reports from Africa say that Beverlee Ward, always a sharpshooter, has killed the largest monkey in the world. Also in Africa are the school teachers, Norma Marsh, Beverly McCullough, and Nancy Gibbs, who are giving the natives a course in Home Economics. (Their new ideas and recipes have replaced the natives' former reference guide, Cannibal's Tasty Cook Book.)

Janice Martin has just patented a noiseless chewing gum called "Purdy's Delight." Another new invention is John Gleason's novel necktie, which lights up, rings a bell, and will sharpen a pencil.

Recently during a concert, when an especially stirring cymbal crash sent a cymbal flying from the hands of Francis Rice, and knocked out Richard Preston, the prominent lawyer, Douglas-Never-Fail-Upton, took the case and successfully defended Francis.

Jesse Billings and his chauffeur, Donald Perkins, are selling automobile insurance. Their slogan is "The car you shave may be your own."

Picasso has retired since a new artist has entered the field. The new artist? Roy Plumley has surpassed him in the art of distortion.

Bob Howe has combined a tuba and a bicycle and perfected an instrument called the tubacycle. One of its great advantages is that it can be pedalled and prevents round shoulders.

Richard Roe recently signed a contract to tell Uncle Wiggly stories over a large television network. He reports that his audience is all ears.

June Taggart, Arlene Carter, and Elizabeth Doty are operating a shampoo business which is reported to be in the red.

Another flourishing business is that of Paul Fredette's Elevated Shoes, and thanks to him Millie Pelkey is working at the Diamond Horseshoe.

Virginia Hesse is now in charge of the National Barn Dance, while singer Robert Leslie thrills audiences with his new hit, "When It's Springtime in the Valley, It's Mud-Time in the Hills."

Jeanne Sharp has a razor blade factory in Mendon.

Vernon Merrill, Robert Daigle, and Hayden Bride have been hunting polar bears in the Arctic. They have also sold the idea of Daylight Saving to the Eskimos who now arise a month earlier.

Rupert Leonard, while riding a bicycle down Mendon Mountain in a blinding snowstorm, recently ran over and killed the Randolph panther.

Dena Ghio, always a connoisseur of fine foods, is operating a Chinese restaurant. Among her employees is the famed chef, Roy Chop Sucy Loyzelle.

Joyce Anne Gouchoe has a column in the Rutland Herald called the "Voice of Joyce."

Thelma Witepsky was voted "Most Efficient Secretary in the U. S." Runners-up were Jean Murray, June Anderson, and Carol Crossman who burned out three typewriters apiece in the contest.

Joanie Crosby's cousin Bing visited her recently and brought her some records by Frank Sinatra.

Luella Hoffman and Jean Johnson have become nurses and now operate an Earth-Moon ambulance service.

Muriel Searles now owns her own shoe store. Her secretary Laura Minard reports that they sold two hundred pairs of pumps for the Fireman's Ball.

Joanne Denardo owns a Dairybar on North Grove Street.

Marge Perkins is in Hollywood where she is helping Lawrence Olivier make a movie.

The old prospector told me this news and rode on. The last I saw of him he was heading for the West, hoping that this time he would "strike it rich."

FAYE RUSSELL,
Class Prophet.

JUNIOR MISS

The Senior class struck pay dirt on the evenings of December 2nd and 3rd when it presented the comedy JUNIOR MISS to the largest audiences in the history of the school.

Under the direction of Miss St. Clair and two student assistants, Mary Jane Anderson and Marjory Perkins, a cast of nineteen seniors portrayed the problems and pranks of teen-ager, Judy Graves.

JUNIOR MISS is a story of a typical New York family—Mr. Graves, (Roy Plumley) a genial and successful business man in his early forties; Mrs. Graves, (Beverly Gibbs) his charming and understanding wife; Lois, (Rosemary Flanders) the very superior young daughter of sixteen; and in particular, Judy, just under fourteen, a little too clever, a little too fat, stepped on at every turn by her older sister, but for all that, an appealing little lady, played so convincingly by Patricia Hubbard. She is vivid, alarming, and sometimes startling original.

The supporting roles made the play the success that it was. Beverly Lash as the vehement and vivacious "Fuffy" Adams provided much entertainment. The mysterious Willis Reynolds (Jack Schremly) and Ellen Curtis (Marge Perkins) provided for the love-life in the play. Harry Grave's boss (Tom Pease) and the Swedish maid (Kay Hansen) played parts that were deservedly well-received.

The youthful admirers of pretty Lois Graves were Matthew Burke, Richard Clifford, Peter Moustakis, Robert Herrick, Ralph Nutter, and Donald Perkins. Judy's young male friends, George Peck and Bob Beauchamp, played their roles especially well.

Jim Vennett, the Western Union boy, and Robert Kellogg, the elevator boy, provided comedy.

Pardner, You Found a Gold Mine because these above-named characters were backed by a hard-working stage crew, property, business, and publicity committees.

Senior Play Directors

Student Council

Front row: Malcolm Guild, Olivene Seward, Lindley Squires, Richard Roe, Donald LaBrake, Gloria Pratico, Mary Jeffords.
Row two: Stephen White, Barbara Adams, Robert Sharrow, Robert Crawford, Marilyn Jillson, Barbara Rosen, Pearl King.

This year the Student Council under its able president, Richard Roe, and with the guidance of Mr. Douglas, carried on its usual program of service and leadership for the school. The group consisted of twenty-three members representing the home rooms and various organizations. This year representatives of each class were also added to the Council. Some of the important accomplishments of the group were the organization of a new constitution for the school, revision of the point system for Student Activities Award, and the purchase of a new sportsmanship plaque which will contain the names of the most sportsmanlike boy and girl of each class. This plaque is to be placed near the new trophy case in the main corridor.

The officers for the year were:

President	RICHARD ROE
Vice President	LINDLEY SQUIRES
Secretary-Treasurer	DONALD LABRAKE

National Honor Society

Seated: Barbara Adams, David Roe, George Peck, George Miller, Richard Roe, Susanne Davis.
Standing: Miss Johnson, Faculty Adviser; Nancy Buchheim, James Guild, Jack Schremly, Roy Plumley, Robert Perkins, Richard Martin, Patricia Hubbard, Faye Russell.

The highest honor conferred upon a student in Rutland High School is selection for the National Honor Society which depends upon the faculty's rating of a student in the four qualities emblematic of the organization; namely, Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship.

The year's activities were handled by four seniors who had become members during their junior year, and the adviser, Miss Johnson. The group sponsored the selling of candy at football and basketball games, and the induction of members at the twentieth annual induction ceremony on March 24th.

During the year two banquets were held, one at Christmas time, and the other, following the induction ceremony, when Patricia Hubbard, Richard Martin, Roy Plumley, Faye Russell, Jack Schremly, and Carolyn Sharp from the senior class, and Barbara Adams, Nancy Buchheim, Susanne Davis, James Guild, and Robert Perkins from the junior class were admitted to membership.

The officers of the year were:

President	DAVID ROE
Vice President	RICHARD ROE
Secretary	GEORGE PECK
Treasurer	GEORGE MILLER

Library Council

Seated: Joyce Fredette, Loretta Wheeler, Martha Edson, Mary King, Pearl King, Dolores Champine, Robert Miller, June Parker, Carolyn Ackley, Carlene Johnson, Stephen White.
Standing: Tilton Richards, Boynton Snee, George Miller.

To provide better reading material for the students of Rutland High School each English class chose a representative to serve on the library council. The members of this service organization brought to the librarian, Mrs. Greene, the names of books which should be added to those already selected for the school library, and helped in the compilation of lists of books for purchase in the future. The council also assisted in the celebration of Book Week, and in the exhibits prepared under the direction of Mrs. Greene which carried out the nation-wide theme.

Band

Row two: Harold Swanson, Richard Kaeller, Bernard Rome, Richard Bartlett, James Jeffords, David Roe, David Petraglia, William Battles, Warren Carlisle, Lindley Squires.
Row three: Robert Mulholland, Leila Goodrich, Richard Roe, Kenneth Smith, William Goldman, Herbert Moore, Malcolm White, Donald LaBrake, Roy Donohue.
Row four: Patricia Dolan, Mary Bradder, Lorraine Bellamy, Alison Lane, John Edgerton, George Greene, Anita LaCrosse, Russell Carleton, Mr. Low, Conductor, Constance Coburn, Francis Rice, Barbara Adams, George Cady, Robert Howe, Kay Hansen, Cynthia Sullivan, Beverly Reed, Rosemary Flanders.

In September fifty-three miners were lowered into the mine of music with veteran miner, Mr. Low. The first nuggets brought to the surface after long hours of work were shown at the football games in the fall. At these, difficult formations were exhibited, and color was added to the football season.

Descending into the mine they emerged later with plans for a concert to secure the gold dust necessary to take them to the New England Music Festival in Old Orchard Beach, Maine, in May. The concert was presented before good crowds on March 10th and 11th. The program including both classical and modern numbers had a wide appeal.

The best miners were chosen to work in a new vein when Mr. Low sent them to the Vermont Music Festival at Burlington during the first week of May. Those participating found it a rewarding experience. On Saturday of the Festival week end the remaining members of the band joined the others, and as a unit all exhibited their wares before distinguished critics. Having gathered sufficient gold dust the miners were able to take part in the New England Music Festival late in May.

Again this year the miners were unionized and governed by the band staff composed of section leaders. After exploiting shaft 1949 a banquet was held at which letters were awarded and the plans for 1949-1950 were announced.

Orchestra

Front row: Roy Plumley, Robert Howe, Alice Chellis.
 Row two: Theodora Phillips, Geraldine Wheeler, Richard Martin, Donald Lunt, Jacqueline Daley, Stephen White.
 Row three: Harold Swanson, Richard Kaeler, Leila Goodrich, Richard Roe, Anita LaCross.
 Standing: Barbara Adams, Mr. Low, Director; Donald LaBrake, Malcolm White, Lindley Squires, Warren Carlisle, George Greene, Francis Rice.

Our orchestra, though small in number as compared with the band, makes up in quality what it lacks in quantity. It is a selected group, composed of a definite number of capable wind and percussion instrumentalists from the band who serve as a balance to the string instruments.

In the course of the year the group has played on many occasions, including assemblies, plays, Christmas production, and Mr. Low's special annual concert with the chorus on April 29th. Our orchestra is heard not only locally, but also each year at the Vermont Music Festival in Burlington.

This year, representing our school in the Vermont State Orchestra and Band are Roy Plumley, Geraldine Wheeler, Dick Martin, and Theodora Phillips playing the violin; Robert Howe, viola; Harold Swanson and Richard Kaeler 1st and 2nd horn respectively; Lindley Squires, trombone; Anita LaCross, xylophone; Francis Rice, cymbals; Barbara Adams, string bass; Roy Donohue, trumpet; and Donald Lunt, 1st flute.

Also in March, two members of the orchestra, Robert Howe and Roy Plumley, were selected to be members of the All-New England Orchestra in Wellesley, Massachusetts.

Mr. Low and orchestra have had a very successful year playing not the regular high school brand of music but standard orchestra literature. Our music department has profited to a great extent from the interest Mr. Low has shown since his arrival in Rutland.

Chorus

 Row two: Joyce Houghton, Carlene Johnson, Sue Terrill, Roberta Cook, Lorraine Bellamy, Myrna Monahan, Nancy Buchheim, Geraldine Wheeler, Phyllis Rousseau, Merlyn Davis, Joyce Fredette, Agnes Bizdikian, Jane Sabourin, Charlene Burke, Alice Hodgdon, Alice Chellis, Jacqueline Daley.
 Row three: James Phillips, Joanne Hoag, Georgia Moustakis, Nancy Ward, Patricia Crowley, Doris Elliott, Janet Brush, Leila Goodrich, Marjory Perkins, Patricia Dolan, Rosemary Flanders, Carolyn Ackley, Robert Howe, George Hansen, Boynton Snee.
 Row four: Mr. Low, Director; John Edgerton, Roy Plumley, George Cady, Joseph Roberts, Harold Swanson, Robert Beauchamp, Jack Schremly, Herbert Moore, James Vennett, Donald LaBrake, Matthew Burke, Joel Sherburne, David Roe, Thomas Pease, Lindley Squires, George Peck, William Frappier, Richard Roe, Francis Raymond.

The camp fire burned brightly as the miners raised their voices in song led by Mr. Low. Lusty male voices and women's sweet voices joined in singing a wide range of songs—ballads, classics, popular and comic. In the course of the year a special group was selected to entertain the rest. Feeling that others outside the camp fire circle might appreciate the talent, the chorus obtained the "opera house" for an evening in April, and with the orchestra gave a concert for the whole town.

The miners who showed special talent had an opportunity to sing with some singers from neighboring towns the first week-end in May in Burlington at the Vermont Music Festival. Barbara Adams accompanied the group at the piano.

Red and White

Front row: Faye Russell, Jeanette Burke, Agnes Bizdikian, Susanne Davis, Nancy Buchheim, Barbara Rosen, Patricia Maurer, Miss Buttles, Faculty Adviser.
 Row two: Jean Johnson, Beverly Gould, Georgia Moustakis, Theodora Phillips, Cynthia Taylor, Priscilla Taylor.
 Row three: Boynton Snee, Peter Moustakis, Janice Martin, Marjory Perkins, Constance Coburn.
 Row four: Warren Carlisle, Maurice Brewster, Maryanna Bugbee, Olivene Seward, Betsy Smith.

The gold-rushers of this century found the pony express too slow, a means of communication, and used instead a school newspaper. The Red and White had a successful year giving the rushers the news and features of the times in twenty-five issues.

Tryouts for the new staff were held during the month of March, and the new staff was chosen by Miss Buttles, the faculty adviser, after the tryout period.

Five members of the new staff attended a journalism conference at Boston University the first week in May. For this excursion the gold dust was procured by various methods. The group held fudge and cookie sales, received one-third of the proceeds from the basketball dances, and sold metal salvaged from used engravings. A total of sixty dollars was raised to defray expenses.

Nancy Buchheim '50 served as editor-in-chief and will continue in the same position this coming year. Susanne Davis who aided her as associate editor will also be back. Maurice Brewster, Business Manager, was assisted by Maryanna Bugbee who will fill that position for 1949-1950.

Art Club

Front row: Carolyn Sharp, Patricia Kinsman, Myrna Monahan, Susanne Davis.
Row two: Marilyn Trop, Beverly Olson, Barbara Cleary, Joanne Burke, Barbara Rosen, Marie Louras, Noma Hall, Jeanette Burke.
Row three: Faye Russell, Virginia Ramson, Marilyn Jillson, Beatrice Soulia, Jane Sabourin, Constance Coburn, Ruth Raymond.

After several years of inactivity the Art Club has been revived, and its members have participated in many projects under the guidance of Miss Doane. Water colors, oils, pastels, textile paints, and pen and ink were some of the mediums with which they created their art. The club provided an assembly program in April which was both entertaining and instructive. The meetings held after school gave all the members a chance to employ and experiment with a number of materials and techniques. It was decided to elect a chairman for a month instead of having a president.

Officers for the year were:

Chairmen	ELEANOR DAVIS, BETH BRAHANA, BEVERLY OLSON, MARILYN JILLSON
Secretary	BEATRICE SOULIA
Treasurer	JANE SABOURIN

Commuters' Club

Front row: Richard Johnson, Donald Peer, Jack Schremly, Beverly Gibbs.
Second row: Jean McGinley, Cornelia Herrick, Earlene LaCoe, Peggy Gilbert, Janet Stone, Judith Patton, Carol Nault, Barbara LaPlant, Barbara Ransom, Kathleen Conner.
Third row: Beverly Olson, Carolyn Ackley, Virginia Herrick, Barbara Rosen, Sylvia Adams, Glenna Wilder, Miss Bresnehan, Faculty Adviser.
Fourth row: Florence Conner, Joyce Ridlon, Barbara Adams, Mary Bradder, Lorraine Bellamy, Joanne Burke, Joan Canheld, Ardelle Frasier, Ruth Ann Raymond.
Fifth row: Bernard Rome, Patricia Hubbard, Joanne Crosby, Joanne Hoag, Rosemarie Plizga.
Sixth row: Mr. Doll, Faculty Adviser; Richard Hudson, Rosemary Flanders, Harlow Shaw, Harold Swanson, Roy Donohue, Charles Edgar, Sidney Izenberg, Boynton Snee.
Seventh row: Richard Despres, Ralph Nutter, Robert Howe, George Miller, Carleton Clifford, Walter Johnson, Lindley Squires, Donald Lunt, Alfred Ghio.

Again this year, Mr. Doll organized the pupils who eat lunch at school into the Commuters' Club to insure proper control of chuck wagon privileges. Shares in the club were twenty-five cents.

Beverly Gibbs was elected president; while Jack Schremly, Richard Johnson and Donald Peer served as vice president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

Frequently during the year free candy was distributed to the members after lunch. A new ping pong table was purchased, and a ping pong tournament under the direction of Ralph Nutter was held. Sixteen boys entered the competition, and Bernard Rome emerged victorious.

Home Economics Club

Row two: Florence Conner, Norma Marsh, Virginia Herrick, Myrna Monahan, Roberta Prior, Maryanna Bugbee, Luella Hoffman, Patricia Martell, Beverly Briggs, Beverly Bruce, Dorothy Martell, Cynthia Taylor, Jean Stevens, Priscilla Taylor, Patricia LeFrancois, Jeanne Jasmin, Marilyn Jillson, Beverly Ewing, Patricia Kinsman.
Row three: Virginia Olson, Joanne Crosby, Jean Johnson, Gunhild Myhrberg, Eleanor Soulia, Doris Elliott, Earlene Germon, Claire Wilder, Elizabeth Gilman.
Row four: Beverly Gibbs, Joanne Hoag, Doris White, Diane Peris, Susan Norton, Miss Bresnehan, Beverly Holcomb, Ardelle Frasier.

During the time of the big gold rush, when all the men headed westward, there were hardly any to be seen in these parts, but the womenfolk got along just fine. The same thing holds true today, for the Home Economics Club had a very successful year without a single male member.

Under the guidance of Miss Bresnehan, faculty adviser, and the leadership of Dorothy Martell, President; Beverly Olson, Vice President; Beatrice Soulia, Secretary; Jean Stevens, Treasurer; and Patricia Hubbard, Program Chairman, the club with an active membership of 35, held sales of fudge and popcorn to raise money, did various pieces of individual construction work, and participated in several social activities including a covered dish supper.

Due to difficulty in obtaining a date for their annual dance, "Spring-time Festival" was not held, but plans have been made for having it an outstanding event of next season.

International Relations Club

First row: Shirley Schofield, Arlington Pond, Cynthia Taylor, Dorothy Martell, Oralia Garcia, Jean Stevens.
Row two: Barbara Adams, Mary Jeffords, Beverly Gould, Beatrice Soulia, Joyce Fredette, Priscilla Taylor, Janice Stone, Patricia LeFrancois, Boynton Snee, Norma Marsh.
Row three: Maurice Brewster, Warren Carlisle, Robert Crawford, Roy Loyzelle, Mason Mehl.

The International Relations Club is now in its second year. The purpose of the club is to make people conscious of the world about them.

The governing body of the organization is as follows:

President	DOROTHY MARTELL
Vice President	ORALIA GARCIA
Secretary	CYNTHIA TAYLOR
Treasurer	ARLINGTON POND
Program Chairman	JEAN STEVENS

Meetings were held every week with guests present. Among the speakers were Judge Milford K. Smith, who spoke on Vermont's resources; Paul Teeter, a lawyer from Middlebury, speaking on World Federation; Professor Stuyvesant Barry of Rutland Junior College; Mr. George Soine, a Rutland County Forester; and Professor Leslie Mitiguy, of Rutland Junior College, who gave the group an account of recent problems facing the United Nations.

During the year the club was shown motion pictures on China, the Americas, and Russia. Included also in the meetings were debates, discussions, and reports from the various members.

In November, Jean Stevens, Dorothy Martell and Barbara Adams were sent to the Vermont State High School Forum in Montpelier.

In February, the club sponsored a "Holiday Hop," which was a social and financial success. Part of the money received was used to send a CARE package to our R. H. S. French child.

One of the most popular club projects was "Pen Pals," letters exchanged by club members and other R. H. S.-ers interested, with people all over the globe. World news was kept before the students by the I. R. C. notices on the bulletin boards.

Junior Mimes

Front row: Robert Cook, Earline Germon, Carole Franzoni, Janet Brush, Anne Upham, Stephen White, Beverly Chase, Mary Ellen Booth, Beverly Briggs, Patricia Crowley.
Row two: Arlene Hadley, Barbara Walker, Nancy Ward, Leila Goodrich, Patricia Martel, Carleen Johnson, Pearl King, Beverly Ladabouche, Beth Brahana, Sandra Trop.
Row three: Mrs. Greene, Faculty Advisor; Lucille Mullin, George Hansen, James Jeffords, Joel Sherburne, Robert Walker, Betty Taylor.

Junior Mimes under the direction of Mrs. Greene entertained well the weary miners by presenting plays and studying drama at the "Old Opera House" (sometimes called the high school auditorium).

They laid the groundwork of dramatics so that next year they will be able to step into bigger productions with the Mimes Club. One of the bigger events of the year was the district play contest held at the "Opera House" in April. Members of Junior Mimes were called upon to assist their more experienced elders in playing host to the competing schools, by serving on production committees, and taking part in the cast of the high school entry "Stage Door."

They also produced with good results a one-act play "The Shock of His Life," for R. H. S. miners at the Opera House in February.

Officers were:

President	STEPHEN WHITE
Secretary-Treasurer	ANNE UPHAM

Mimes

Front row: Mary Jeffords, Marjory Perkins, Mary Jane Adams, Jane Perkins, Roy Loyzelle.
Row two: Jean Stevens, Jeanette Burke, Theodora Phillips, Barbara Rosen, Judith Patten, Joan Collette, Jean McGinley.
Row three: Earlene LaCoe, Janet Duval, Joanne Burke, Carlene Johnson, Rosemary Flanders, Joyce Houghton, Janice Stone, Cornelia Herrick, Jean Guttenplan, Cynthia Taylor, Olivene Seward.
Row four: Marilyn Trop, Rachel Homeister, Claire Hebert, Martha Edson, Barbara Adams, Susanne Davis, Boynton Snee, Constance Coburn.
Row five: Betsy Smith, Jean LeClair, Patricia Mauer, Maryanna Bugbee, Nancy Buchheim, Mrs. Morrill, Faculty Advisor; Jacqueline Daly, Robert Crawford, Warren Carlisle, Roy Plumley, Maurice Brewster, Arlington Pond, Willard Taylor, James Phillips, Tilton Richards.

The purpose of the Mimes is to teach the aspects of the theater to interested boys and girls of the school.

During the year, the members are given knowledge of the theater, talks about current plays on Broadway, make-up demonstrations; and they hear guest speakers in the dramatic field.

"Stage Door" was entered in the state play contest. The production won the district play contest held in Rutland on April 6th. Their entry was repeated and well received in the State Finals at Northfield on April 16th.

Their officers were Marjory Perkins, President; Jane Perkins, Vice President; Mary Jane Anderson, Secretary; and Mary Jeffords, Treasurer.

Rifle Club

Front row: June Cheney, Beverlee Ward, Rachel Homeister, Robert Herrick, Nancy Ward, Ardis Stratton, Dolores Cameron.
Row two: Fred Hyland, Walter Gibbs, Ruth Ann Raymond, Ray Butler, Maurice Brewster, John Stetson, Nelson Smith.
Row three: Clara Melen, Mr. Bugbee, Faculty Adviser; Lindley Squires, Jack Lanzillo, Joel Farrell, Arlington Pond, Robert Walker, Reginald Knipes, Frank Ferrell, Kenneth Smith.

The Rifle Club, with a membership of fifty, was under the supervision of Mr. Bugbee. It has as its purpose to teach the boys and girls the safe use of firearms, to supply an extra-curricular activity for non-varsity students, and to provide entertainment for its members.

Meetings were held twice weekly at the Rutland Armory. The goals are becoming pro-marksman, marksmen first class, sharpshooters, expert riflemen, and finally distinguished riflemen. The titles qualify the members for medals, pins, and letters; the latter were handed out for the first time this year.

The scores in outside competition were as follows:

Rutland	1026	Lyndon	880
Rutland	856	Vermont Academy	812
Rutland	869	Amherst	868
Rutland	467	Upper Derby	500
Rutland	1141	Proctor Jr. Rifle Club	1343
Rutland (Girls)	438	Lyndon (Girls)	454
Rutland	711	Tampa	865

R. H. S. also participated in the National Sectional NRA in Northfield March 19th at which R. H. S. Girls' Rifle Club won first place. The team was composed of Rachel Homeister, Beverlee Ward, Nancy Ward, Audrey Ackley. In April they went to Northfield again for the State match. This team was composed of individual championships.

Driver Training

James Phillips, Ralph Crippen, Mr. Canary, Instructor; Geraldine Wheeler, Jean LeClair.

Just a hundred years ago our ancestors were traveling West; driving their covered wagons. Today we still have those who are following in their footsteps, but because of the invention of the automobile these students pursued the Driver Training rather than the Wagon Trail Course.

Twenty-five pupils signed for the course for the first semester, and were instructed by Mr. Canary. From this class fourteen passed both the road and class exams, and ten have already received their licenses. In the second semester twenty-one students enrolled for the class, and looked forward hopefully to the day when they, too, might become full-fledged drivers.

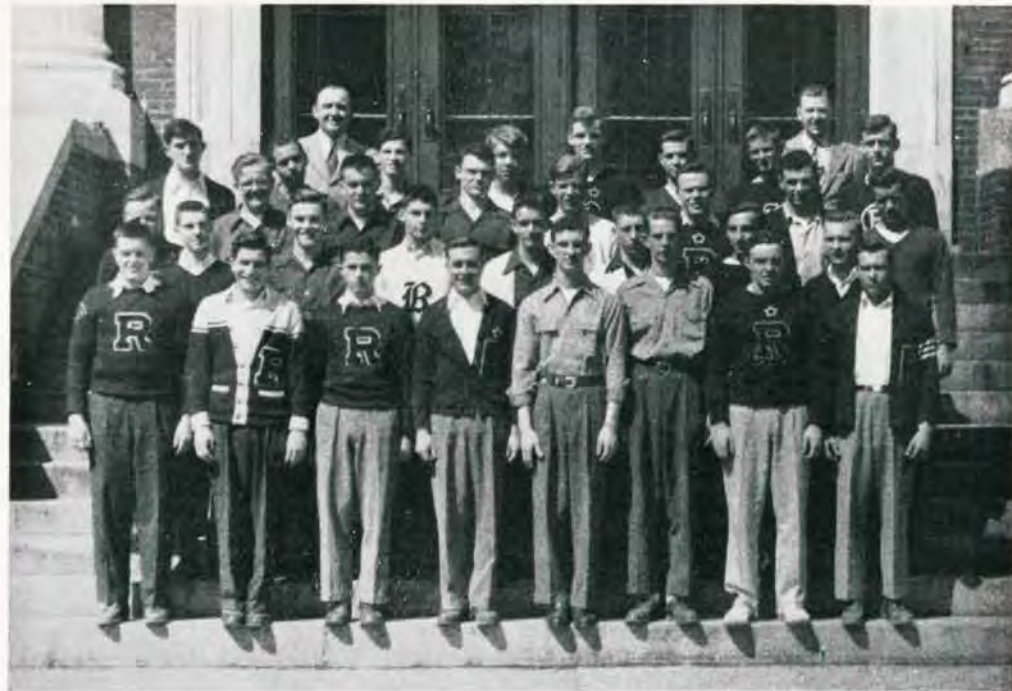

The class work covered all the rules and techniques of driving, and on the road the class learned the various mechanics involved in driving: shifting, starting and stopping, parking, and turning around.

The main objectives of the course were to make the students safety-conscious, and to have them realize that they have rights and duties as drivers and pedestrians.

With a cry of "West Street, ho" instead of "westward ho," it is a really popular and valuable course for all who can take advantage of it.

Varsity Club

Row two: Tilton Richards, Frederick Richmond, James Guild, Robert Perkins, George Peck, Robert Fuller, Thomas Gerdon, Paul Horton.

President Jim Vennett and his thirty-eight '49-ers struck gold in these heah hills when they held their annual Freshman-Sophomore Basketball tourney. 'Twas nice diggin' and an unusual haul for the boys. Two hundred and some dollars set the fellers right nice. They traded in some of their nuggets for silver megaphones for the cheerleadin' women.

Sech success got the boys to thinkin' about doin' suthin' fer the school. Seein's they's had a hankerin' for tuh show off the trophies they'd won, they decided tuh git one big show case fer 'em. Now, we have a beautiful trophy case in the main corridor.

Just about everybody seemed like they was happy. Senior advisers, Mr. Flaitz and Mr. Keefe, and hard workin' '49-ers see'd tuh it thet the new fellers in camp got their gold pins tuh prove they was genuine qualified miners.

At the end of the year the gang had a big feast and everyone ate and ate. A year of sech rich gold diggin' was never see'd afore.

Girls' Leader Corps

Front row: Betty Baker, Marjory Perkins, Jean Johnson, Laura Minard.
Row two: Mary Jane Anderson, Jean Shortsleeves, Barbara Adams, Martha Edson, Rosemary Flanders, Jacqueline Daley.
Row three: Miss Swift, Faculty Adviser; Mary Jeffords, Patricia Dolan.

Having staked their claim in girls' sports at Rutland High School, the Girls' Leader Corps began to work it. In October they hired ten new miners, four from the senior class and six from the junior class.

The first vein to be exploited was Field Hockey under the leadership of Jean Johnson. Patricia Dolan was selected to take charge of the basketball tournament, and appointed her assistants. The last nuggets were excavated in the softball tournament. Betty Baker headed the crew which dug in this project.

Miss Swift was in charge of the miners, and under her supervision meetings were held twice monthly. Believing in the gold in girls' sports, Miss Swift and a committee of juniors have made provision for hiring more diggers next year. There is a possibility of adding tennis to the series of girls' sports for next year. Plans have already been outlined for a tournament.

Officers for the year were:

President	MARJORY PERKINS
Vice President	LAURA MINARD
Secretary	MARY JANE ANDERSON
Treasurer	JEAN JOHNSON
Student Council Representative	BETTY BAKER
Chairman of Girls' Sports	PATRICIA DOLAN

The folk of the mining town were led in their cheers for the '49-ers by the cheerleaders headed by the co-captains Beverly Lash and Marjory Perkins. The six girls took the initiative in holding pep rallies before important games during football season and employed many different formations and unique ideas in cheering the teams on to victory.

After a tryout season three of the JayVee squad were added to next year's Varsity squad. Carole Franzoni, Janet Brush, and Earline Germon were the girls selected.

The Raider pigskin toters started the 1948 campaign with but three veterans. With each succeeding week the team showed rapid improvement, and when the cleats dug into the turf for the last time on Armistice Day, R. H. S. completed an undefeated season in state competition. They were awarded the mythical state championship by a state-wide sports poll under the auspices of the Rutland Herald.

Exhibiting cool finesse in the opener against Bennington, Rutland High overpowered the Ben-Hi eleven 19-0. This was a night game at St. Peter's Field.

Jim Guild displayed his open-field trickery twice in the Springfield tilt to score both touchdowns. He booted the extra point, too, in helping whip the defending state champs 13-0.

Jim Vennett stole the show a week later on a rain-soaked Burlington field to drown the Seahawks 12-0.

The Redskin machine bogged down when the Purple of Bellows Falls demanded a scoreless tie. Bob Miles ruined many of the Falls' chances to score with his aggressive defensive play.

The following Saturday Paul Horton and Bill Frappier helped to pull the Brattleboro game out of the fire. At the end of the first quarter, the Raiders were behind 6-0 but pushed ahead to punish the Bratts 20-6.

After an easy 39-0 walk over St. Mary's of St. Albans in which the third team played a good part, the R. H. S. gridsters took a decisive 27-6 defeat from Pittsfield, Massachusetts High. McConnell and Dick Clifford were outstanding, nevertheless, with their hard hitting and vicious tackling. This loss was forgotten on Armistice Day when the Redskin Armada trampled the Green Wave of Mount St. Joseph's Academy 26-0 to clinch the state title and become protectors of the American Legion City Championship trophy for the second consecutive year. Walt Johnson looked good on the defense while George Pike, who was recovering from an injury sustained earlier in the season, shared the honors for the Acad game.

Rutland High School placed five men on the first string all-state team and three on the second team. One made honorable mention. Co-Captains Roy Plumley and Dick Clifford took top Vermont honors together with Rip Kellogg, Jim Vennett and Jim Guild who was also named captain of the team. Tom Pease and George Pike copped second team positions while Johnson was given honorable mention.

Roy Plumley was rewarded doubly with a trophy presented to him by the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's parish for the sportsmanlike way that he played in the M. S. J. game. This was the first time that the award has been given.

One outstanding feature of the '48 season was the large amount of second-team play and the capability of the reserve team and the few regulars who were not on All-State. Don Peer started two games and played a good deal of the other six, while Paul Horton was in the starting backfield four times, and in all of the remaining tilts. Bob Miles, a rugged sophomore, started all the games and had an excellent season. Don MacFarren started the Brattleboro and Pittsfield games and did very well for himself and the team.

Reserve men, Dick Martin, George Peck, Bill Frappier and Butch Fuller did not start any Saturday but certainly saw plenty of action, sometimes more than the starters. Peck was active in the Pittsfield game, and Frappier in the Brattleboro tilt. Martin was in and out of every game, and was especially noticeable in the Pittsfield fray.

From the spectators' standpoint the 1948 grid machine was a smooth working, smart, aggressive outfit which was well-conditioned physically, well-grounded fundamentally in the tiger domain of the "T" offense, and well-schooled in the various defenses to combat the scoring threats of the opposition.

The men greatly responsible for the success of this fine team are Coach Flaitz and his assistant, Coach Keefe. These two men have teamed together on the gridiron since 1938 during which period the Red Raiders have been acclaimed state champions five times.

Those members of the 1948 squad who will lug the leather in '49 are Jim Guild, Captain; Bob Miles, Bill Frappier, Bud McConnell, Walt Johnson, Carleton Clifford, Don MacFarren, Butch Fuller, and Bill Battles.

The Raider Hoopsters pioneered to a successful finale in claiming the Southern Vermont Tournament crown. It was the first time since 1926 that a Rutland team has emerged victorious from this event. In gaining admission to the tourney the Red and White dropped but five of their fourteen games in league competition. Two of the pre-season tilts were chalked up against the Raiders.

Tournament:

Rutland	33	Brattleboro	30
Rutland	24	Springfield	22
Rutland	27	Montpelier	50

Curtis High School of Staten Island turned back the Rutland crew in their Vermont tour, while the other was a heart-breaker lost to Lynn English High School during over-time in the Boston Arena. In the State Tournament at Barre, RHS was beaten badly by Montpelier.

Brattleboro defeated the Redmen twice in the race for tournament berths although the Flaitzmen knocked them off in the opening round of the tourney. The Raiders shared games with MSJ and Springfield, triumphing over the latter in the final round of tournament play. The remaining games went to the Red and White.

Captain Dave Roe led the scoring march for the team and was third high scorer in the league. Bob Sharrow and Bob Perkins took honors in the basket brigade also. Primarily defensive men and play workers, Jim Guild and Johnny Baldwin capably completed the quintet. Bob Miles started several games at the beginning of the season when Guild was benched with a foot injury. Johnny Baldwin came into the limelight just before the tournament and stayed there. Previously, Bud McConnell had played most of the season.

Bob Sharrow and Jim Guild were placed on the Southern Vermont All-Tournament Team and also were named co-captains of that aggregation. Their teammates also accorded them this honor for next year.

Roe and Baldwin are the only members of the team lost by graduation. Besides the regulars, Miles, McConnell and Fritz Richmond received their letters this year.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Front row: George Greene, Malcolm Guild, Leslie Baird.
Row two: John Dolan, Joseph Roberts, George Cady, Roger Stratton, Richard Grace.
Row three: Charles Dunklee, William Goldman, Sanford Guynup, William Frappier.

The Junior Varsity quintet, coached by Mr. Flaitz, captured a record of fifteen wins and six defeats during the year's schedule.

While the junior tossers did lose a small percentage of their games, they still outscored their opponents 710 to 493.

After four consecutive victories the Raiders dropped an overtime battle to the strong Whitehall quintet. The Junior Varsity's main goal throughout the season, however, was to topple the Green Wave. We had our first game with MSJ there, and after a close battle all the way through, we came out the underdog. This was inspiring, however, for on the second meeting the tide was turned and the Red Raiders carried off the honors.

Dick Grace, high scorer through the year, had a total of 136 points. Joe Roberts came through with a total of 101.

The greater percentage of the JayVees this year will graduate to the ranks of Varsity material and continue to carry on the Rutland High School's traditional "March of Victory."

Freshman Basketball

Front row: William Farwell, James Jeffords, Nelson Baldwin, George Cady, Joseph Roberts, Sanford Guynup, George Hansen.
Row two: Malcolm Guild, Russell Shappy, Earl Perkins, Martin Welch, Bernard Rome.

Gaining experience in hopes of JayVee and Varsity berths next year, the Freshman boys trained faithfully, and came through a successful basketball season.

The prospects of a team looked dim at the beginning of the season, for although a squad had been selected at the close of the Inter-mural basketball tournament, a coach was nowhere to be found. Mr. Miller, a teacher at Meldon, solved this problem, and drilling got under way.

Under the tutelege of Coach Miller the Frosh toppled Middletown Springs Varsity and also victimized the West Rutland squad.

Coach Keefe then took over the junior Raiders for the tournament sponsored by the Varsity Club. In the first game, the freshman quintet went through Black River Academy of Ludlow. They then set back the Wallingford five in the semi-finals. However, M. S. J.'s frosh proved too much for them, and they fell in the final round of tournament play.

Many freshmen looked promising, and we shall probably be hearing more of them in the next three years.

Class Basketball

ROOM 205 CHAMPIONS

Juniors

David Melen, Donald McFarren, Mason Mehl, Robert Perkins, Frederick Richmond, Jack Seward.

SENIORS

Robert Beauchamp, John Baldwin, Richard Clifford, Matthew Burke, William Fiske, Paul Fredette, John Edgerton.

SOPHOMORES

FRESHMEN

Kenneth Smith, David Quinn, Joel Sherburne, John Stetson, Russell Shappy, Donald Smith.

Trying to discover some good miners and also to give the boys some entertainment, Head Miner Keefe ran off a home room basketball tourney again this year. Competition was stiff and keen, but room 205 managed to outdo 113 in the finals to become camp champions.

True to his theory, Coach Keefe unearthed some valuable nuggets which he added to his Varsity and JayVee teams.

The home rooms in each class vied for the class championship, then the class champions competed for the school title. Refereeing was supplied by Varsity Club members who earned their letters in basketball.

The champions were:

Freshmen	Room 13
Sophomores	Room 113
Juniors	Room 205
Seniors	Room 101

Ski Team

Front row: James Austin, Donald Howland, George Peck.
Row two: Peter Mead, Donald LaBrake, William Battles, Lindley Squires, Mr. Root, Coach.

Although the unusual snow conditions throughout the winter had an effect on its schedule, the Raider Ski team had one of the most successful seasons in its history.

The season opened with a meet with Black River High School which Rutland won by a score of 292 to 251; George Peck and Peter Mead paced the winners.

The state championship meet, a two-day engagement, was next for the Raiders. They showed a marked improvement as they swept downhill and were second in the slalom, picking up a substantial lead by the end of the first day. They maintained their lead through the cross-country, but Lyndon advanced to first position after the jumping, and Rutland finished as runner-up. Captain George Peck won the four-event championship.

On the following week-end in the New England meet the team finished in seventh place.

Lack of snow suspended the schedule for a time, but the Rutlanders sponsored an invitational meet with Burr and Burton, Middlebury, and Springfield. Don LaBrake led the Raiders to victory, with Middlebury taking second place, Burr and Burton third, and Springfield, last.

Steady improvement was the keynote of the season, and with only George Peck graduating, next year's edition will be out to avenge their setback by Lyndon, their only Vermont defeat.

Field Hockey

SENIORS

Rosemary Flanders, Patricia Dolan, Laura Minard, Marjory Perkins, Mary Jane Anderson, Jean Johnson, Patricia Hubbard, Jean Murray, Betty Baker, Luella Hoffman, Kenena Hansen.

Front row: Jean Guttenplan, Carlene Johnson, Jane Perkins, Rosemarie Plizga, Cornelia Herrick.
Row two: Janice Stone, Earlene LaCoe, Theodora Phillips, Sue Terrill, Janice Bresnahan, Gloria Pratico.

Front row: Earlene Germon, Doris Elliott, Carole Franzoni, Patricia Martel, Beverly Ladabouche, Sandra Trop.
Row two: Pearl King, Betty Mitchell, Charlene Burke, Leila Goodrich, Patricia Crowley, Jane Perkins.

The juniors and seniors struck it rich in the fall with hockey sticks instead of picks. It was thought they weren't going to make a strike, but they finally "panned out."

Under the supervision of the foremen (Girls' Leader Corps) an active season, containing more practices, more games, more careful distribution of letters and numerals, and accurate attendance records, was enjoyed. After the necessary groundwork, under the union's big boss, Miss Swift, the real games got underway.

It was a thrill for the senior champs to win hockey letters, even though the juniors had conflicting claims.

Although the games are rugged, they develop healthy individuals and teach good sportsmanship, co-operation, and leadership.

The actual result of strikes made, lost and shared was:

	Won	Lost	Tied
Seniors	2	0	2
Juniors	2	0	2
Sophomores	1	2	1

Row three: Bernard Rome, Harold Swanson, Peter Virtue, Richard Grace, William Smith.

Baseball

The diamond crew under Coach Flaitz swept their first five games, but lost the city title to the Acads, 1 to 6 and 5 to 6.

The Raiders out-slugged Poultney in both tilts, 6 to 0 and 8 to 1. Fair Haven failed to hit and lost the first game 1 to 0 and the second 6 to 5. Wins were shared with Springfield when R. H. S. won the first battle 6 to 5 and dropped the last 12 to 5. In Burlington, the Redmen chopped out an 8 to 4 win over the Seahorses. The diamond in Glens Falls saw a 5 to 4 defeat for Rutland.

Johnny Young, Jim Guild, Bud McConnell and Carleton Clifford handled the hurling chores, while Bob Miles stopped their speed behind the plate. Bob Perkins shared games with Jim Guild at first base. Bill Thomas and Bob Sharrow did the work around second base and shortstop. "Rip" Kellogg played the hot corner. The boys in the "pasture" were Fred Richmond, Dick Clifford, Bob Fuller and Malcolm Guild.

The '49 team did not meet general expectations, but promises to develop, especially in the pitching department.

Three battery mates graduate this year. They are Captain Bill Thomas, "Rip" Kellogg and Dick Clifford. They leave a very experienced team for 1950.

The schedule:

4. In 22 meets from April, 1946 through May 28, 1949:
  - (a) Won 17
  - (b) Lost 5

In Spite of all the successes on the cinderpath, the outstanding memory in the minds of the trackmen of '49 is the following statement from Coach Douglas:

"To the trackmen of the Class of 1949, I say, 'Thank you, thou good and faithful athletes for the once-in-a-lifetime coaching experience'."

PICTORIAL POWER

The irresistible power of pictures is felt in class record books just as surely as in magazines and other publications. Pictures . . . interesting, life-like and well-reproduced . . . vitalize the yearbook and serve as visual reminders of student life — as it was lived! Faithfully reproducing these pictures through the process of photo-engraving is the job of the Basil Smith System — specialists in publication engraving. Pictorial power to the maximum is assured by our modern facilities, years of experience and well-earned reputation.

A GUIDE TO OUTSTANDING CLASS RECORD BOOKS Every year-book staff should have this valuable creative aid. A continuing catalogue full of sparkling layouts and helpful information on designing yearbooks. Reserve your copy now.
